

Geocratia - People & Planet Paradigm — Appendix E: Development of Citizen Cells networks, conducive to provoking awareness, fundraising, organisation of Commons networks and of incremental Consumer Boycotts and of National Economic Boycotts to force an Ecosocial Contract

Citizen Awareness Workshops	Fundraising and / or resource program
Cultural, political, social, economic and ecological approach in the context of socially and ecologically responsible citizens (SERCs)	Development of fundraising programs
Analysis, diagnosis and solutions from the perspective of True Democracy	Cell, councils and National Council funds
Paradigmatic change to Geocratia: Well-being of the People and the Planet and NOT the market	Defraying of operating expenses: assemblies, transportation, communication, office equipment, premises
Workshops on how to build Geocratia	Campaigns to raise donations in money or in kind
Planning workshops for the local, regional and National Assemblies	Fundraising from commons economy networks (SERCs)
Commons Economy Network Development (SERC)	Development of Consumer Boycott Campaigns and National Economic Boycotts (SERC)
Cultural conversion to an ethos of socially and ecologically responsible citizens (SERCs) in sustainable commons	Cultural conversion of consumer behaviour to develop a culture of social and ecological responsibility in consumption (SERC)
New Habits for responsibility in consumption: ethical, critical, supportive and sustainable commons	Analysis and planning of specific consumer boycott campaigns
Replacement of supermarkets by neighbourhood stores supplied by commons' vendors and wholesalers (SERC)	Scheduled execution of incremental consumer boycotts
Development of micro-economic focal points: I consume what you produce, I produce what you consume	Development and collection of experiences, encouraging the emergence of a Critical Mass for a National Economic Boycott
Rational/sustainable use of essential resources: water, electricity, gas in a sustainable commons ethos	Organization and planning of National Economic Boycott = Labour + Students + Consumption